

ANGIN BARET AT PURA DALEM DESA SEMANA WITH BALI HHHII SATURDAY 1-x

Elemental - how else to describe it? In PENISTANDING the sky went black as a nigger's armpit shortly after midday, and it bucketed down, but by three quite bright and only intermittent mizzle - not so unusual. First signs of devastation nearing our run site which not a million miles away - say 20 minutes drive with NIGHT CRAWLER & WORM. Power lines down and shattered remains of concrete pylon near village and roofless kubu-kubu (cabins) in the rice-fields. So - the HARES - BARNACLE BALLS, STEPTOE & KUMONYERBACK -supplied us with details of the praeternatural whirligig that overtook them whilst laying. No sheltering under trees being uprooted, with severed limbs flying. Trail obliterated by teeming downpour. Good old BARNACLE BALLS out a second time to replenish the scent. We don't really suffer topan (typhoons or hurricanes) at these latitudes but on rare occasions a puting beliyung or or highly localized angin baret (basa Bali) can occur - tornado would be more apt.

Conditions deterred some seaside cissies: more noticeably absent were TOILET TRASHER spare-pricking at nuptials, and HARELIP allegedly aboard a floating casino - their duties resumed by ever dependable BOUNCING CZECH and semper adsum RINGTAIL whose declaration of two fat ladies somewhat premature given late arrivals: sheer devotion. Did anyone obey SOD'S (or MURPHY(S) LAW and cross AYUNG? they said what had been below HORNBY HERRING's waistline was now well above his head. Only TINTIN BALLS appeared to have swum for it. But the undoubted star of the show was CHOCOLATE FINGER who unexpectedly returned early cradling a litter of puppy-dogs (four of them) that she had discovered abandoned in a gunny sack in a ditch - abandoned by bastards who were aware of the imminence of hound handy HASHERS. CHOCOLATE FINGER will have them vetted and good homes sought for her brindled beauties. At five a Crested Money-buzzard overflew in low and laboured flapping flight, first harbinger of hordes to come.
